ROUND THE SHOPS

NORFOLK JACKETS IN
LINEN-TWEEDShorts And Slit Skirts For
The Moors

The smartest fashions from the English collections will shortly go North, writes a correspondent. For shooting stalking and fishing there never is very great change. Heather mixtures and green-grey fishing shades must be more or less adhered to. Cut has improved of late, and the popularity of shorts for the young and slim has helped sports clothes. Another factor in this year's sports fashions is the enormous variety in materials, and the use of thinner stuffs that nowadays can stand the tailor's iron and quite hard wear. Linen-tweed is one of the most satisfactory.

The short slit coat in plain unlined flannel looks well worn over pleated shorts of a small checked linen-tweed. This season sportswomen will be better equipped for a continuation of warm weather. So often they have complained of too heavy tweeds, as even in late autumn it can be very warm up North.

Oiled Tweed

There will be the oiled-tweed suit for rain, and the orthodox Norfolk jacket with its patch pockets. The new Norfolks are smarter and look very attractive made of linen-tweed in neutral colouring. They can be worn over shorts or one of the new slit tailored skirts, for skirts for the masculine type of clothes will be short and straight. The newer frocks forecast this tendency; in fact, the Scotch wardrobe at this season predicts certain subtle changes ahead.

Beach Fashions

In jerseys and cardigans cotton-and-wool mixtures will still have their turn. Long striped pullovers, rather like tunics or smocks, are worn with wide string and leather belts. They savour more of beach fashions, but they can look very well over light angora dresses. Some of these straight pullovers in cotton and wool mixtures are worn with a dark wool coat and skirt in place of washing silk shirts.

Hand-knitted styles are more extensive than ever. There are all sorts of new soft knitted tweeds for Scotland that wear and keep their shape quite as well as the harsher variety. With them are worn contrasting berets and scarves which can add the lighter touch to neutral and practical colours. Brown, a new chocolate shade, is a favourite, and looks delightful when brightened by beret and scarf of periwinkle blue, bordered with brown. A dull grey is treated in a similar fashion with jade-green.

There are many novel accessories that can brighten up practical country wardrobes. Silk scarves, woven in a hand-knit design, are worn with suits and ensembles of darker hues, for tailored clothes are mostly dark, cut with slim coat coat and narrow skirt.

Tweed Berets

Despite the charm of the new large cloth and tweed berets, the light summer felt hat with plenty of fine handwork is a smart and comfortable choice. Lattice-work let in to the side of crown provides both ventilation and a novel trimming.

Very attractive is a felt hat with an insertion of chenille-trellis in a matching shade. A similar decoration can be introduced in the scarf. Belts, too, along with practical pouches, can be used in a contrasting or matching scheme. Straw, string ornaments, all suggest a sporting atmosphere. The plaited string or corded belt can be dull and of lacquered surface. The tennis girl occasionally chooses a bandeau or eyeshade to match.

"Frivolous" Shoes

Shoes and gloves for a Highland holiday must not be "frivolous." Up North, even if foot-wear be light, it must be workmanlike. Snüde and antelope, with broguing and square heels, even canvas, can appear practical and yet be cool. For wet weather and tramping the brown or black leather brogue is always correct.

Then are many women who hate thick wool hosiery. For them there are neutral shades in silk or cotton mixtures. Gloves, like hosiery, can be of silk, if coarsely knitted. Wash-leather and chambray are alternatives to hogskin.

What could be more charming than this hostess' gown of black velvet? The severe simplicity of its lines is broken by the full velvet flounced sleeves and the amusing low-cut back. Of special style interest are the braided and pickled worn with this gown by Marie Evans, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

LANE CRAWFORD'S

What—No Pep? Tired so easily? —It is because you are not wearing comfortable shoes. Now here is a chance for you to get some really good shoes at very reasonable prices. They are shoes that actually allow your feet to exercise, permit free action and yet give perfect support so that you will forget your foot troubles. But not only all these good points for comfort, they are smart and good looking as well. Lane Crawford's are making a special display, and they are to be had in navy, brown and black kid finished with a very nice heel.

MAIZEE'S

Have you seen those wonderful little two-piece outfits that Maizee has just received. These dresses are made of very good quality silk with the smartest corduroy coats, that I've seen for a long time and not only are they smart but useful as the coat can be worn with any other dress—especially when the evenings get a little cooler.

The colour combinations in these outfits are grand, for example, a lovely deep yellow silk with dark brown corduroy coat with three-quarter sleeves.

LIGHT WEIGHT FELTS

Mayo's have just received a big selection of light weight felts to be made up to suit your individual taste, so, before you finally decide to select your hat call round at Mayo's, and you are sure to find your favourite colours.

EVE

As I have said before one can always get good gloves at Eve's, as she has such a splendid range to choose from. Again this week she has another special sale of smart washing gloves.

THE HONG KONG
GIRLAn Adaptable
"Creature"

People are rather fond of decrying the Hong Kong girl, but even her severest critics have got to admit that the creature is very adaptable...and why? because she HAS to be poor thing...with a climate like ours!

One week she is frozen by icy winds...the next, she is stifled by clammy fog...then comes a week of torrential rain, when she must splash down to her office in rubber boots and a mackintosh...and then, (without the slightest warning) she is plunged into tropical heat...but is she hot or bothered? No not she! The creature emerges from her mackintosh-chrysalis, complete with the coolest of sleeveless frocks, the smartest of toeless sandals, and the widest of shady hats; serene and smiling, and quite ready for anything up to 99 in the shade!

What do You wear on the Beach?

It is rather interesting to note how different women react to really tropical heat, and one can get at interesting side-light on character by watching what a pretty woman wears on the beach. There is the type who comes down to the sea in a really smart frock and hat...and her opposite number, who hunts up last year's garments, to hack-off on the sands.

There is the girl who chooses beach pyjamas, because they are so easy to wear and so comfortable; and the girl who arrives on the back of the boy-friends motor-bike in a coloured shirt and white drill trousers.

Sea-Urchins and Smart Women

There is the girl who follows the latest fashion of the shortest of "shorts," and a big triangular scarf knotted at the neck and waist...an admirable costume this for those who like their sun-bath spread evenly; and ideal for those who live near the waters edge, (at Shek'O or Deep Water Bay), but hopeless for those who have to motor a long distance, or travel by Peak Tram or Ferry. But even these handicaps can be circumvented by adopting the latest fashion of a wrap-over skirt (which is fastened together by two big buttons), and a coloured sporter shirt with a zip fastener. By means of these two simple garments the "sea-urchin" can be changed into a smart young woman in less time than it has taken me to tell about it.

THINGS A GIRL SHOULD KNOW

Provisions For A Happy Life No Matter Where

We expect so much of our children; more, I sometimes think, of our girls than of our boys, writes a correspondent. I have a daughter who is 17, and I find that in the last six months I have expected her to know how to do these varied things.

Pass College Board examinations in Chemistry, French, and Latin.

Decide on her preferences among further studies with a view ultimately to earning her own living.

Meet a great many strangers pleasantly.

Handle her own personal expenses on a small allowance.

Play golf and tennis, one in the competition of tournaments.

Dance well.

Read intelligently.

Do the marketing for a country cottage and keep the bills within a stipulated monthly amount.

Select several evening dresses, with the understanding that each must cost less than $20, and keep on hand the right kind of clothes for her sports and activities.

Refrain from drinking without being a prig.

Prevent the boys "who took her out" from indulging in necking.

Leave the kitchen in order after impromptu entertaining at night, no matter how late it happens to be.

Be agreeable to her relatives and to those family friends in whom she has no interest.

Drive a car without accidents, wash it, and change a tire.

Swim.

Keep some of the day for herself.

I am slightly ashamed of that list because there are many things on it that I myself cannot do. None the less that is what I expected of my daughter. I do not want to cross anything off that list, and I shall probably find myself lengthening it.

Varied Equipment Necessary

It is true that I cannot foretell what her individual life will be, but I can see into what divisions her duties must inevitably fall. She will have a business life of some sort, even if it is limited to paying her bills or shopping on credit. She will have a domestic life almost certainly, for domestic life persists even in strange new forms. She will have many social dealings with men and women. She will have personal relations with herself.

When I say business dealings I do not mean a job. I think a girl should know to earn her living, of course. But it may not be necessary for her to earn money continually. The sense of earning, however, the personal confidence it gives a girl, the awareness that her ability has a market value, is immeasurably valuable. That knowledge keeps a girl from all sorts of secret discontents and fears.

When my daughter finishes her schooling she will, I think, have found a way to earn her living. But if not I shall send her to a business college for a few months and then expect her to stumble about, among parties and households, until she is 30 and then discover that her education had gone stale and that she had no method of earning except badgering her friends to buy trinkets or luxuries because of friendship.

The world is full of charming, dishonest women who cheat because husbands, fathers, and shopkeepers wink at the notion that women always spend more than they should. Women can be just as charming if they are honest. That is why my daughter must be responsible about her spending money. That is why when, on the 28th of July, she has 13 cents and no gasoline in her car, she has to get along on foot until the first of August.

Home Life

It seems to me beyond question that a girl should know something about domestic life and household management.

I want her to know something of marketing, to know to make good coffee, good tea, boil a chop, make a salad and put a meal on the table without getting breathless. But beyond that I leave knowledge about cookery to the pressure and temptation of her future circumstances.

I believe a girl should know how to take a temperature and care for a minor illness or accident. She should know how to make a bed. Few do. I think she should know that there is no peace of mind in a confused or disorderly room. She should know how to arrange flowers. And she should know how to get along with her family. In every family the effort at harmony must start somewhere and man and boys succumb more easily to business moods or bad golf scores or bolts.

The normal girl does not even want to imagine a life in which men play no part. Therefore she should be fortified by accomplishment for such relations. One begins with those social relations which lead to closer ones between individuals and for these a knowledge of how to dress, how to play games, how to dance, how to talk well and conduct oneself in company are the major points. She should know that it is not necessary to be beautiful in order to be charming. She should know that no well-dressed person thinks about looks all the time.

She must know how to use her voice. The shrill clatter of some girls' voices definitely destroys their charm. She should swim both for safety and for pleasure. I should let her choose her other sports.

"No Nice Girl"

There must be supplementary knowledge of general conduct. My first principle is that a girl should know how to keep herself from being "necked." For necking is utterly bad because it excites both girls and boys past the point proper for their ages and habits, and because it gradually debauches a girl who can only hope that her husband will be as successful a necker as other men she has known.

I feel equally strongly about drinking. I know of no valid reason why a girl should know how to take a drink. It will do her no physical good. And it will steadily decrease her ability to have a good time without drink.

But there are other things she must know in addition to all these. For men are going to disappoint her, and jobs and work can go terribly stale. In the first place, she should know how to read. I mean that she should know how to transfer the contents of a printed page to her mind, not just skim over a few columns of movie gossip. If possible she should be able to play the piano; for if you are in trouble your radio will drive you mad but your piano will be your comfort.

She must know how to be alone. Much of an average woman's life has lonely stretches in it, which will frighten her if she has not learned as a girl the pleasure of being alone.

A Girl's Task

If I am demanding, it is because I care so much. I know what a great burden is on the girl of to-day; and for all her apparent nonchalance, she knows it too. She must carry all the new responsibilities we can conjure up for her. If we had a safe, settled adult world to open to a girl, if we could promise her even a choice between a small job and a good man's love, it would be different. But we are so confused ourselves that we cannot distinguish between the basic and the temporary.

I knew I should find myself adding to that list. For there is another thing I must not forget. She should know, no matter if she is cheated, no matter if she is thwarted, that quarrelling with men is self-destructive.

Just the Point

Pat appeared before the magistrate on a charge of assault and battery, the charge having been brought by one Michael. The magistrate was attempting to get both sides of the story, and asked Pat what induced him to administer such a terrible beating to the plaintiff.

"Shure, sir," said Pat, "suppose a man called you a dirty Irish scallywag—what would you do?"

The magistrate smiled. "But I'm not Irish!" he replied.

HELEN JACOBS IN "SPIKES"

English Players Impress

Forest Hills, Aug. 15. Miss Kathleen Stammers and Miss Freda James, the English Wightman Cup players, are still going strong in the American women's national singles tennis championship. They both survived third round engagements without being the slightest bit extended.

Miss Stammers met a doughty tournament player in Miss Katherine Winthrop, but the English girl, playing at her best, form, romped away with the match, winning in straight sets and conceding only three games, all in the first set.

IMPRESSIVE WIN

This was indeed an excellent achievement and has considerably lifted Miss Stammers' stock. Miss Winthrop has played with signal success this summer. She finished runner-up to Miss Jane Sharp in both the Mason and Dixon and the Hot Springs singles championships, while at the former meeting she was also runner-up in the ladies doubles and won this event at Hot Springs.

Miss Freda James met Miss Hunt of Los Angeles and won very comfortably without being extended to the third set. The manner of her victory impressed very much.

On the other hand Miss Helen Jacobs, reigning champion, was sent the whole distance by Mrs. Harris, another prominent tournament player, and actually lost the first set.

Mrs. Harris was in excellent fettle during this early period and broke through to win at the twelfth game. But the effort proved per undoing and she failed to withstand a withering attack of chop strokes and volleys from the holder, who went away with the next two sets with the loss of five games.

SLIPPERY COURT

Miss Jacobs was permitted to wear spiked shoes for the first time in the history of the championships because of the very slippery state of the court.

She expressed fear of injuring her left ankle which was in bandages owing to neuritis.

The results were:

Miss K. Stammers (Britain) beat Miss K. Winthrop (U.S.) 6-3, 6-0.

Miss F. James (Britain) beat Miss Hunt (U.S.) 6-2, 6-4.

Miss H. Jacobs (U.S.) beat Mrs. Harris (U.S.) 5-7, 6-2, 6-3.

Router.

"Well," persisted Pat, "suppose he called you the kind of dirty scallywag that ye are?"

LONDON FASHION NOTES

Preparing For The Autumn

Tweed suits for Scotland point to what will be more noticeable later in autumn woollens. The tighter texture is all to the good for tailoring, and in many home-spuns there are bright flecks of colour. Everything suggests a good season for British woollen materials.

Some very neat suits are made of Donegal flecked tweeds in multi-coloured yarns. For Scotland there are trim double-breasted coats and skirts and three-pieces of long or three-quarter coat, and cardigan and skirt. There are also woollen coats in a modified Norfolk style for autumn in town. Envelope pockets displace the older and more useful buttoned pockets, and sometimes top pockets have been displaced by fanciful tabs. A number of boldly patterned woollens have plaid checks on neutral grounds. These are already being made up for the autumn; and the warm golden yellow with brown over-checks and grey with bold checks in green, royal, or red over-checks indicate that the season will be full of colour. A number of sports frocks made of perpendicularly striped woollens, some with the stripe in a "lightning" wavy line, also show what is to come. Scarves and necklines add an interest to these frocks and will be a feature of many of the early woollen coats before the time for fur trimmings arrives. Some scarves made from ravelled velvet look like hanks of wool ready for knitting.

Hand Knitted Clothes

Hand-knitted clothes show new designs, some of which imitate materials such as Harris tweeds; the machine-knitted dresses and suits also copy tweeds and diagonal cloths. Jumper suits for the autumn are of woollen knitted fabrics with a slightly harsh surface. Knitting gives the effect of tucks in the yoke and a moss stitch is introduced to vary the design of the fabric. The "welt" at the waist is no longer seen in cardigans or jumpers, both of which are longer. Vividly coloured cashmere jumpers with rolled high necklines will go with tweed suits. Corduroy velvet waistcoats are also to be worn with tweed suits; a choker scarf matches the tweed and fills in the neckline. The high throat-line is shown in most woollen autumn outfits.

There is also a new uncrushable velvet. It has withstood every test to which it has been subjected and come out after a little shake with its pile unruffled and unmarked. It has an artificial silk pile and a satin back, and is beautifully soft; its mark-resisting properties are due to treatment after it is made. It is in a range of new colours and is for dresses of all kinds.

This new process is specially welcomed by those who like to take a velvet frock away with them. Plain velvets hitherto have been difficult to pack and need ironing before being worn; but the new velvet travels as well as lace.

LINGERIE

Lingerie presents a problem in the summer as the regular styles do not always fit under summer sportswear. Manufacturers have given special attention to making cool and practical foundation garments and light cotton open-meshed materials have been combined with elastic. Two-way stretch elastic and lastex are used for girdles to be worn under shorts and bathing suits. Brasieres have the halter neckline which is one of the most popular for sun-bathing suits, and slips have low-cut backs. There are lingerie sets in cotton, voile and "batiste" with dainty flowered designs for the very hot days and dance sets in lace-trimmed lawn which are suitable for wearing under cotton and linen evening gowns.

For the early autumn both day and evening dresses will have long, simple lines, with closely moulded effect at the shoulders, waist, and hips. The lingerie worn under these gowns must be perfectly fitting. Satin and crepe de Chine will be used for daytime wear, cut on the bias so as to follow the lines of the figure; and untrimmed, except for a narrow banding, finely stitched seams, and embroidered initial. Evening lingerie will be equally simple and the materials will be georgette and triple ninon. To ensure smoothness many garments will have waistbands and brassiere tops of silk lastex fabrics.

Night Gowns Trimmed

In contrast to the simplicity of day-time lingerie, nightgowns are much trimmed with lace and fine hand-work. Tucks and smocking are used, and narrow picot-edged frills. Racine and Valenciennes are the two most popular laces, the former in a deep ecru colour, the latter dyed to match the material with which it is used. A blue georgette gown has a yoke of blue lace to match and a finely tucked centre panel holding wide sash ends. A rose satin gown has a yoke of chiffon of the same colour finely gathered into bands; the high waist-line is finished with a satin sash. White chiffon is used for a gown of Empire line, with smocking at the neck and waist. The hem, sleeves, and sash are finished with narrow frills.

For negligees velvet and satin are always popular materials, but this autumn fallie and brocade will be used. In addition to the more usual flat ruchings and fur and feather trimmings, massed flowers in self materials will be seen on collars, cuffs, and revers. Smocking and gauging will trim capelets and sleeves in the softer

BLACK AND WHITE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, August 2. Black and white are as chic as ever. At any hour of the day, for almost any activity, they make the smartest possible colour combination. In the current issue of Vogue we are shown some lovely models in black and white. A Vionnet day ensemble consists of a black crepe dress and white alpaca coat, the latter sleeveless and smartly slashed up the back (another version of the trend towards dits). And for the evening, a ravishing gown of black satin from Lanvin, with huge sleeves made entirely from crisp white organdie flowers!

fabrics. For those who prefer dressing-gowns of the tailored mannish type, plain heavy crepes and satins are used, as well as linen and fine flannel. There is also a great variety of colours and designs in foulards and tie silks.

Black stockings have been mentioned for autumn wear, but warm browns, dark neutral beiges, gun-metal, and mole greys and even "off-black" tones, are less heavy looking and can all be worn with all black street costumes. Deep copper-brown and chestnut shades look well with brown and green sports suits. For evening wear natural skin shades will remain the most popular.

TRI-COLOUR SCHEME

Dusky Green, Lucifer—a flaming red as its name suggests—and Spindrift, will form the new tri-colour scheme for the autumn.

Spindrift is the newest of the off-whites with the green hue of waves mingled with seafoam.

New Colours

Some attractive new colours were to be seen at the headquarters of the British Colour Council when seven groups of summer and autumn tints had a first showing. Victorian plum and postillion green were featured, the first novelty being among a series of red, which promise to become popular very soon. The shade favoured was without the overpowering brilliance of recent experiments in this "direction," but a certain warmth remained. In contrast the latest green was described, not inaccurately, as a "high note," having a dash of blue in its composition. To-day's show dealt with the blending of colours rather than the actual manufacture of garments but a special "coloration chart" had been drawn up for the occasion so that gloves, hosiery, furs, and shoes might match the main schemes of future gowns. In spite of this official veneer, experts had not forgotten how to invent fanciful names, a few of the labels being—moorhen, vapour grey, airway mist, comit green and fog grey. Evidently the last was an urban idea.

THE WHITE COAT

Necessity for Summer Wardrobe

For many women a coat of white or pale-coloured blanket cloth is one of the necessities of a summer wardrobe. No other single garment will serve so many purposes while on holiday or at home, and perhaps no other so perfectly combines comfort with good looks. At the same time, there is one drawback which deters some of the economically minded from such a possession. This is the consideration of cleaning. After a week's wear the fluffy surface of a white coat in particular, has lost that freshness which is one of its prime charms, the creases of the sleeves become grimed, and the collar, where the neck touches it, shows a line of soiled powder which militates against daintiness. What then? If we send it to the cleaners it is absent for several days at the last, it puts us to considerable expense, and, once chemically cleaned, a garment is far more difficult to wash with soap and water, if, indeed, such treatment is any longer practicable from fear of undue shrinkage owing to the wet chemicals. That is to say, we should really need two such coats, with one of them always away being chemically cleaned.

The other way, however, is to wash the coat at home, and this is a perfectly simple business if only it be set about in the right way, especially the first time. The only serious difficulty, which is the drying, is obviated during the summer months by all those who have either an outside drying place or a room where there is a sufficient current of air. Well washed, a blanket coat should need almost no ironing, and, if the stuff is of fair quality to start with, it will actually gain in appearance after each home washing.

Warm Water

If you have not a tub large enough, use the bath for washing your coat. Make a good lather with warm—not too hot—water and soap flakes and, having soaped beforehand any specially dirty parts immerse the coat in the lather. Squeeze and swirl it about, but do not rub much. The dirt will come out without much persuasion. Rinse in a second warm water, and then finish with clear cold rinsing—in soft water if possible. When removing from the bath, roll and squeeze the material, pressing out the water, but refrain from wringing, and if you have a wringer in the house do not let it be too tight as the coat passes through it. Wrapping the coat in a large bath towel, and patting and squeezing it there, will help to expel the moisture and hasten drying, but if there is a good green and breezy weather outside this precaution is unnecessary.

The most important thing of all is the way you hang the coat out to dry. Do not peg it to the line or hang it on a coat-hanger. If you do you are in for trouble later. Instead, have a long curtain rod (half-inch diameter is strong enough) of plain, or enamelled, but not of stained, wood, and slip it right through both the sleeves of the coat, beginning at the wrist of one sleeve and coming out at the wrist of the other in such a way that the garment is fully extended in the manner of a scarecrow. By tying a loop of string midway on the rod, where the collar of the coat comes, it can be fastened to swing and spin on the clothes line. As the water drips down to the hem it can be gently wrung off. The pockets should be turned out and, after a time, the coat taken off, turned inside out, and replaced on the rod. In this way it will dry surprisingly quickly and it will not lose its shape in the least degree.

If any ironing is necessary it will merely be by way of pressing the back of the collar and the lapels, and possibly the flaps of the pockets and the pockets themselves. But as often as not the coat is ready to wear as soon as it is dry. On a fine summer night when the weather prospects seem settled, it is a good plan to wash a woollen coat in the evening and put it out to hang all night. It will then be bone dry soon after breakfast.

NOTED IN THE
BOOKA Train Journey
In Manchukuo

Amongst Manchukuo's achievements in the past two years (writes a correspondent) stands out one reality: for the foreigner there are no more dull train journeys. Those who protect us show the liveliest interest in our age, work, and nationality, and they do not begrudge a couple of hours' pleasant conversation on these topics. The journey from the capital of Manchukuo to Kirin may be done in three and a half hours, depending on the mood of the engine-driver, so I settled down on a wooden bench in a third-class compartment and began to read. A little Japanese in foreign clothes, with the shirt worn like a smock shirt-tails hanging out back and front, came and took a seat beside me, and producing the inevitable notebook and pencil, began a confidential chat. Name, age, nationality were duly noted, and the place where I worked. Had I a husband? "No." I must be lonely? Also "No." Did I ever see the English newspapers? "Very seldom—too busy." "What do they say about Manchukuo?" "I don't know." He looked incredulous, and assuming a stern tone, "You ought to read the newspapers, you know." I tried to look penitent. "What do you think of Manchukuo?" "Why, splendid, excellent." I replied with gusto, hoping the lie was excusable in this instance, for I had no desire to see the inside of a gaol, and all my words were being taken down in the notebook!

Coming To The Alhambra

Believe it or not Glenda Farrell, who possesses a pair of the shapeliest limbs in Hollywood, does not like to appear in pictures with more than her ankles showing. Yet in her latest First National comedy drama "Havana Widows," which is coming to the Alhambra Theatre on Sunday, Glenda waived her reluctance to showing her legs, because the script called for it.

After director Ray Enright had pointed out to her that the opening scenes were supposed to show a line of burlesque girls, with Glenda playing one of the girls, Glenda agreed to don tight-fitting clothes for a long shot—that is, taken from a distance. When you see this scene in "Havana Widows" upon the screen, you won't be able to pick out Glenda Farrell until the camera moves in for a close-up. Then you'll see Glenda from the waist up, wisecracking with her neighbour, in the line, Joan Blondell.

Glenda explained her inhibitions against showing her legs as being due to the fact that her entire stage training has been along straight dramatic lines. She has never appeared in a musical comedy and consequently never had occasion to "strip" as appearing in abbreviated costumes is commonly called in the vernacular of the stage.

In "Havana Widows," Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell appear as two chorus girls who become disgusted and decide to go hunting for millionaires in Havana. They are out to snare a couple by hook or crook. Their adventures rock and shock Havana. Others in the cast include Lyle Talbot, Guy Kibbee, Allen Jenkins, Frank McHugh and Ruth Donnelly, all but Talbot being known as splendid comics. Earl Baldwin wrote the screen play and the snappy dialogue heard in the picture.

Showing At The Queen's

With Robert Armstrong and Richard Cromwell in the leading roles, "Above the Clouds" now showing at the Queen's Theatre is a thrilling story which mainly concerns the adventures of the newsreel men.

Many unusual shots such as the clashing of airplanes and the sinking of a submarine by a cruiser are included in the picture, the background of which forms an exciting story.

Dick Robinson (Richard Cromwell) is assistant to Scoop Adams (Robert Armstrong) crack cameraman for the Globe newsreel. Scoop has earned a great reputation in the profession, but mainly through the efforts of his assistant, who really does all the work but who gains no praise.

After many adventures together Dick was dismissed by his firm, mainly through the carelessness of Scoop. The way in which Dick proves his innocence and the revelation of Scoop's duplicity, provides many a thrilling, moment which makes the picture well worth seeing.

Supporting the two leading players are Dorothy Wilson, Edmund Breese, Morgan Wallace, and Dorothy Revier who gave excellent support.

"THE AVENGER"

Forced Into Outlawry

One of the most amazing and intriguing periods of American history is depicted in "The Avenger," Columbia's latest feature, starring Buck Jones, which is commencing to-day at the Alhambra Theatre.

The locale of this picture is California in the hectic gold-rush days of '49.

That was the era when long trains of prairie schooners, loaded with voyagers, trekked steadily westward. The travellers endured every privation and danger and finally arrived in California to begin their frantic search for gold. But, as shown in "The Avenger," life in the mining camps was usually as hazardous as life on the long trail. There was no established law and "might made right."

"The Avenger" tells the historically true story of a famous California bandit who was forced into outlawry because of unjust treatment. Buck Jones, famous Western actor, has the title role and Dorothy Revier plays opposite.

The supporting cast includes Edward Foll, Sr., Otto Hoffman, and Edward Hearn. Roy William Neill directed the production.

Spencer Tracy In Ideal Part

Things millions of women and men want to know will be revealed in Fox Film's latest release, "While New York Sleeps," which will make its appearance on the screen of the King's Theatre on Sunday. The film stars Spencer Tracy. Advance reports indicate that Tracy is an absolute sensation in a role that perfectly suits him. The picture reveals a woman's sensational story told for the first time with all its love and beauty, passion and heartaches.

The film is kaleidoscopic in its revelation of the romance drama, comedy, night life and sporting events of New York City during the past twenty years.

Helen Twelvetrees and Alice Faye head the cast in support of Spencer Tracy. Others in the cast are Robert Gleckler, Henry O'Neill, Hobart Cavanaugh, G. P. SYLVIA SIDNEY

Gives Inspired Performance

Sylvia Sidney plays the role of a woman whose charm for men brings her more tragedy than happiness, in the screen version of Theodore Dreiser's famous novel "Jennie Gerhardt" which is on display at the King's Theatre to-day.

B. P. Schulberg produced the film for Paramount, which Marion Gering directing. Donald Cook, Mary Astor, H. B. Warner and Edward Arnold are featured.

The film follows the plot of the Dreiser novel faithfully. "Jennie Gerhardt" is a woman who hardly realizes the effect of her beauty upon men. She yields to an elderly Senator, in love with her, because of her gratitude for the assistance he gives her poverty-stricken family. But he is killed in an accident before they can be married, and their child is born.

Starting her life anew, she is swept off her feet by the brother of her wealthy employer, and for years they enjoy their happiness until he learns of her child. His reaction is startling and its effects on Jennie tragic.

"Jennie Gerhardt" is the second film in which Miss Sidney has London, Aug. 2. A first edition of Omar Khayyam, which Fitzgerald, the translator, gave to his old housekeeper, sold at Sotheby's to-day for £135 to Messrs. Quaritch. It was not a very good copy, the old buff wrapper being torn at the back.

TRAVELLING BY AIR

What To Carry

A United Air Lines' pilot recently did a very fancy job of making a forced landing in a Bethel, Conn. swamp without fatalities. The passengers scrambled out of the emergency exit of the tail, 20 feet in the air, and rescued the pilots, in the nose of the ship. These occasional swamp landings bring up the question of rubbers and rope ladders as part of the travelling equipment of aerialists. The answer is no. Air passengers should not be burdened with anything so trite as rubbers. Thirty pounds is the luggage allowance which is another way of saying inexpensive canvas types. But, don't go too cheap on luggage because the varnish or glue of the shoddy ones listens of horses' hoofs. Hat box and suitcase are sufficient means for carrying a sports dress, dinner dress for town, and an evening, print, with right shoes and hats. Wear a very lightweight silk suit or knit that doesn't muss, and carry a top coat.

54 - A Suggestion For The Regatta Club

We have not lately heard anything about the Regatta Club. One of the objections to this kind of sport in Hong Kong has always been that the expanse of the bay is too great; the water is consequently not only too rough, generally speaking, but the race boats appear contemptibly diminutive and all illusion of a struggle for speed is destroyed. We happen to know that for the success of pulling races, narrow water is essential, and if our aquatic amateurs will consider for a few minutes they must arrive at the conclusion that even in England no good pulling races are seen at places which are situated on broad waters.

In the case of Hong Kong however, the defect can be easily remedied. Between Stone Cutters Island and the main land there is a sheet of water, which for the purpose of boat racing can hardly be exceeded. If the course were made close to the North beach of the island, the spectators would have the best view of the race from the shore, where tents could be raised, refreshments be had, music be played, guns fired and all that sort of thing. A fine marquee might be raised for the "beauty and fashion" of the Colony on the top of one of the low hills which overlook the course, where by aid of telescopes on stands, an excellent view of the race might be enjoyed.

None would imagine what a pretty place that Stone Cutters Island is without personal inspection. Really we think if the Amateurs were to remove their boat house over there entirely and cross the bay in dingies, they would enjoy the sport much more than they now do. They might have comfortable huts erected to sleep in if they chose. This would be a great luxury during the summer nights, the temperature of Stone Cutters Island being naturally much lower than in a crowded place like Hongkong under the lee of a great hill. At all events it would be a change and there is something in that peculiarly conducive to health and longevity.

Around the Courts

"VERY SUSPICIOUS"

Two Chinese were charged before Mr. Macfadyen yesterday with unlawful possession of a pawn ticket, which was reasonably suspected of having been stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

Prosecuting, Detective-Sergeant W. Gowans stated that on July 1, the Tai Fung Pawnshop issued a ticket to Lai Mui, accountant of the Sun Mai shop, No. 289 Queen's Road Central. On August 21, the ticket was stolen; and on August 13, the first defendant, attempted to redeem the property, a gold bracelet and a gold finger ring. When the complainant missed the ticket he reported the matter to the pawnbroker who consequently detained the first defendant when he handed in the ticket.

His Worship: In law, I don't think that a pawn ticket is necessarily a thing that can be suspected of being stolen.

Sgt. Gowans: The circumstances of the case are that the second defendant stated that he got the ticket from Lai Sing and the name on the ticket is Lai Mui. They intended to sell the property to a goldsmith at a profit.

His Worship: Unless you can prove there was a false pretence.

Sgt. Gowans: They did not pretend.

His Worship: I admit it is very, very suspicious.

The defendants were discharged.

LEAVE TO APPEAL GRANTED

Leave to appeal was granted by the Full Court yesterday, comprising the Chief Justice, Mr. A. D. A. MacGregor, and the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice Jackson, in a case dealt with in the Summary Court concerning the sale of certain junks.

Originally Wong Tin, merchants of 515, Queen's Road West, claimed from Matsunaga Tomio, of 11, D'Agular Street, the sum of $680 in money lent between January 25 and February 19. Alternatively the money was claimed as having been paid to Matsunaga and Co., at the oral request of Tomio on or about January 26.

In another writ Ling Ho, Fishing Company, of 515, Queen's Road West claimed $1,000 from the same defendants in respect of four fishing junks which they had paid for but had not received.

Mr. F. H. Loseby, of Russ and Co., represented plaintiffs and Mr. F. E. Nash, of Messrs. Woo and Nash, appeared for defendants. Yesterday, Mr. H. G. Sheldon, instructed by Mr. Loseby appeared for the original plaintiffs who were the present applicants. He said this was an application for leave to appeal from a judgment of Mr. Justice Jackson in an action brought by two separate plaintiffs against one defendant.

The actions were entitled differently. The case for the plaintiffs was that they were two separate transactions—one for money received and one for money lent. Defendant's case was that it was one action, and Mr. Nash had submitted that it was an instance of splitting. The action was dismissed on this ground by the learned Judge, but Mr. Loseby was granted a re-hearing when judgment was again given on the original ground.

THREE POINTS

The three points of appeal were: (1) that splitting did not apply when the actions were brought by separate plaintiffs; (2) the effect of the judgment is that the learned Judge has treated one transaction and one cause of action as synonymous terms; which, it was submitted, was not correct; (3) assuming all the facts found by the learned Judge to be correct, the correct decision would be not to dismiss both actions with costs, as had been done, but to dismiss the one action which he found not to come within the terms of the actions.

DOG SUMMONSES

Before Mr. Wynne-Jones at Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday, Mrs. A. E. Perry, of No. 172 Boundary Street, was fined $3 by Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday for keeping a Japanese poodle without a licence on July 25.

R. E. Smith was fined $3 for keeping a dog without a licence and $25 for allowing it on Taiwan Beach without a muzzle. It was stated that defendant had left his dog in Kowloon Docks, which were private property, but it was taken out by some engineers to Taiwan Beach, where it was found by the police.

BAG SNATCHER GAOLED

Sentence of six months' hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen at Central Magistrate's Court yesterday on Lo Sze Shun, 28, who was charged with snatching a handbag, containing $8.45 in money, a gold ring and a key, the property of a woman named Ho Ying.

It was stated that the complainant was walking along Des Voeux Road Central near the Sincere Company store when her bag was snatched from behind. The defendant made off down Wing Wo Street. He was chased and caught by Police Constable C61. The bag was found tucked in the front of the defendant's girdle.

Capt. W. A. Birch, master of the Jardine steamer Chakrang, was summoned before Mr. Wynne-Jones at Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday for failing to fly a red flag whilst having dangerous goods on board at Quay B2.

His Worship: Do you admit the offence, Capt. Birch?

Defendant: I plead guilty, your Worship.

Sergeant Williamson: I understand it was the fault of the Chief Officer, your Worship, but as defendant is master of the ship, he has been held responsible.

His Worship: Quite. How much dangerous goods did you have on board, Capt. Birch?

CHARTERED BANK NOTES

More Additions To The $5 Issue

A fresh issue of the Chartered Bank's new series of $5 notes will be made in the course of the next few days.

The notes are the familiar small green ones with the figure "5" in red on the face of the note.

In the forthcoming issue, the red figure "5" on the face of the note is greatly increased in size and in addition the Chinese characters "five" also in red have been added on the face of the note.

H. G. WELLS IN MOSCOW

Returns After Fourteen Years

London, July 28. Mr. H. G. Wells arrived in Moscow by air yesterday and was met by a large gathering of people, including representatives of literature and art.

In an interview Mr. Wells said: "When I last visited Moscow Lenin suggested that I should return in about ten years to see what the country of the Soviets had become. Fourteen years have passed since then, but here I am."

Defendant: Fifty jars of sulphuric acid, sir.
A fine of $10 was imposed.

A BLACK POINTER

Adjourned on Wednesday for the production of the dog in question, the case against Mr. J. T. Prior, of Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist, for having allowed his dog to go without a muzzle was continued before Mr. Hamilton at Central Magistrate's Court. The dog, a black pointer, was produced in Court.

Mr. Prior pleaded guilty but said that the animal inoculated last June.

A fine of $3 was imposed.

Arrested by Corporal Hermsby of the Lincolnshire Regiment, Chan Tak Hing, 58 was brought before Mr. Wynne-Jones at Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday on a charge of loitering at No. 538, Nathan Road on the morning of August 15.

It was stated that the defendant was arrested inside the passage-way of the house. When caught, he defendant said he had gone there to look for his young brother.

In passing sentence of six weeks' hard labour, His Worship remarked: "You can't go wandering into a private house to look for your younger brother."

The case in which Police Constable Gull Meer is charged, with attempting to obtain a bribe of 50 cents from a hawk in Sai Street, will be heard by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court on Wednesday next at 2.30 p.m. The accused was formally remanded yesterday.

ALLEGED PERJURY IN AFFIDAVIT

On behalf of Leung Yue-chi alias Leung Ka-kim, of 43 Village Road, Mr. T.P.K. Kemble yesterday tendered a plea of "guilty" to a charge of perjury in connection with an affidavit in the estate of Leung Kin, who died in 1918, leaving $112,000.

Mr. W. A. Mackinlay, of Messrs. Deacons, appeared for the prosecution.

Mr. Kemble said with regard to the affidavit, which had been fixed at $10,000, he understood the amount asked was heavy, because the prosecution would say that the Government had lost in estate duty. The person died in 1918 and not in 1928, which was the alleged perjury. In 1918 the shares of the Sui Tak Bank were worth very little but in 1928 the business was flourishing at its height. He denied the Government had lost in estate duty.

Mr. Mackinlay opposed. He said the application for heavy bail was not because the Government lost estate duty, but because after the warrant was issued the defendant went away. They had been looking for him for a year and had to be brought from Hongkong. It had entailed considerable expense. The magistrate pointed out to Mr. Kemble that at last week's hearing the original bail applied for was $20,000. He offered that the bail of $10,000 he allowed to stand.

The hearing was fixed for Monday at 2.30 p.m.

AN 83-YARD CAST

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, August 2. The phenomenal cast of 83 yards made by M. H. Jacquet in the British Fly and Bait-Casting Championship at the Crystal Palace is an indication of the seriousness with which the French take their fishing.

Since the war the two-day tournament organised in Paris by the Casting Club of France has become a national event.

The meeting, which is assiduously practised for, is held in the Bois de Boulogne, the bait-casting being done on grass for convenience in measuring.

M. Jacquet's cast, which beat by a handsome margin the record of 65yds 2ft set up in 1914 by Mr. H. Hardy, head of the firm of fishing tackle experts, was the most remarkable as this was the first time the French had competed over here.

Under British rules casts are made with a spinning reel and light salmon tackle. The bait is a half-ounce weight and has to be cast within an arc of 35 degrees.

Mr. Hardy is no longer allowed to compete in the event, which is open only to amateurs.

This March, however, he won the salmon-casting event in the French tournament, and hopes to win it in the meeting held this week at Glanusk under the aegis of Lord Glanusk, the president of the British organisation.

FUTURE OF THE S.A.

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright))

Berlin, Aug. 16. Lutz, the Chief of Staff of the Brownshirt detachments granted an interview to the Berlin representative of the Koenigsberger Allgemeine Zeitung as to the future of the S. A. Lutz said that important steps for the re-organization of the troops will take place after the National-Socialist Congress in the autumn. The essential feature of the change would be that the S. A. would be much more closely associated with the political activity of the National Socialists.

S. W. B. PRIVATE K. R. A. MEETING
CHARGEDTheft Of Towel Alleged

Private Richard John Kennedy, of the South Wales Borderers, was arraigned before a District Court Martial at Murray Barracks yesterday on a charge of stealing a towel from the China Fleet Club on August 4.

Accused was found not guilty on the charge but, guilty on the alternative count of being "improperly in possession" of the towel. Major E. H. Impey (Lincolns) was President, and other members of the Court were Capt. L. C. Gates (Lincolns) and Lieut. J. G. Moon (South Wales Borderers). Capt. H. M. Davis (South Wales Borderers) prosecuted, and Capt. V. J. F. Popham (South Wales Borderers) defended.

Accused pleaded not guilty to both charges.

Towel Under Tunic
The No. 12 "boy" at the China Fleet Club stated he saw accused in the conveniences, at about 7.30 on the evening of August 4, washing his hands. As he came out he was trying to push a towel underneath his tunic. He followed accused to the bar, where the latter sat down at a table and wrapped the towel in some paper which he obtained from another soldier. Witness reported the incident to the No. 1 "boy."

Cross-examined, witness said accused's tunic was done up when he put the towel under it.

Wo Yee, No. 1 "boy" at the Club, stated that after previous witness had reported the theft to him, he in turn reported to the night watchman. They went into the bar and the watchman asked accused what he had wrapped up in the paper. He replied "Two vests." The watchman then reported the matter to the secretary who opened the parcel in the presence of accused. It was found to contain one of the Club towels stamped "R.N.C." and "C.F.C." Accused said he had bought the towel at a shop in Wanchai but when the shop was visited the manager denied that accused had ever bought a towel from him.

A. B. Kemp, who was on duty at the bed-ticket office, gave evidence of receiving a report from the No. 1 "boy" and going to the bar, where he approached accused. Accused denied taking the towel, adding that there were two vests in the parcel he was carrying.

An employee at the Po Cheung haberdashery shop in Queen's Road East, gave evidence of the visit to the shop of accused and four other persons. Enquiries were made by one of the persons as to whether accused had bought a towel in the shop that day. Witness denied this.

Accused's Story
Accused, in a written statement handed to the Court, stated that he went to the China Fleet Club about 4.45 p.m. in company with Privates McGrae and Birchall. They had a game of billiards and then went into the bar. They had a drink and about 5.30 p.m. he left the Club, saying he was going to buy some kit.

He bought a towel and some cleaning kit in a shop in Wanchai and returned to the Club about 6.30 p.m. and placed his parcel under his chair. He then went with Birchall to have a game of billiards and after the game went to wash his hands. He returned again to the bar and had another drink. While there he saw a Chinese "boy" staring at his parcel. He asked the "boy" what he was looking at, but the "boy" left the room. A few minutes later the "boy" returned with a European who asked him what he had in the parcel. He replied that he had a towel and some cleaning kit wrapped in the paper. The European asked him to go to the office. When the parcel was opened it was found to contain a China Fleet Club towel. He had not seen it before.

Privates McGrae and Birchall gave corroborative evidence. The latter added that accused did not take his parcel with him when he went to play billiards but left it in the bar.

Many Matters Of Interest

A number of interesting questions were discussed at the Committee meeting of the Kowloon Residents' Association held on Monday last.

The President, Mr. L. D'Almada Castro, was in the chair. There were also present: Mr. H. F. Bunje (Vice-President), Mr. C. M. Hall (Hon. Secretary), Messrs. F. C. Mow Fung, W. Goldenberg, C. M. Mannors, R. Pestonji, Li Chor Chi, B. Wylie, T. W. Wilson, C. E. Terry, Lam Ming Fan, E. Kern, Rev. E. L. Allen.

Apologies for absence were received from Messrs. H. F. Un, I. Murray, W. R. Rattey, Captain R. Henderson, and Lieut. Col. E. D. Matthews.

Correspondence with reference to the "Star" Ferry approach; bus stops in Nathan Road; an amusement park in Kowloon; and Cox's Road Playground, were read and approved.

Postage Stamps

A sub-committee appointed to advise on increased postal services in Kowloon reported that additional information "was being" obtained with a view to furnishing the Postmaster General with a list of shopkeepers who would be willing to stock stamps.

The Hon. Secretary was instructed to write Government and enquire whether it would be possible for ambulance patients travelling across the Harbour, to be carried in the Vehicular Ferry and thus obviate the present system of taking stretchers on to the "Star" Ferry to the inconvenience of both the patients and the travelling public.

Bus Stations

Correspondence between the Association and the D.S.P. Kowloon, relative to certain bus stops in Nathan Road, was read and discussed at some length. It was decided to include in the Press report the following and concluding letters in connection therewith:

Kowloon Residents' Association.

Kowloon, 25th July, 1934.

D. Burlingham, Esq.

Deputy Inspector General of Police, Kowloon.

Sir,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. W. P. O. 21/1929 of the 19th May last and note the reason for the elimination of certain bus stops in Nathan Road.

My Committee have given the matter their careful attention and consider that the replacement of the "request" bus stops near the Central British School where the trees are in close proximity to the pavements, would not cause any serious obstruction to traffic.

It is further opined that the spacing of the trees at these points permits of such buses as would be required to pull up, to draw into the kerb in accordance with the Traffic Department regulations.

I am instructed to request that the question be reconsidered since a distinct hardship is now being felt by the numerous children and teachers of the Central British School, both in arriving and leaving, more especially in rainy weather.—I am, etc.

C. M. HALL,

Hon. Secretary.

Police Reply

Water Police Station,

Kowloon, 7th August, 1934.

The Hon. Secretary,

Kowloon Residents' Association.

Sir,—In reply to your letter dated 25th July, I beg to inform you that I have again considered the question of bus stopping places at the Central British School.

On the western side of Nathan Road, the nearest bus stop is only 178 yards from the School. On the eastern side of Nathan Road the nearest bus stop is the bus stop between Granville Road and Kimberly Road is 231 yards from the School. It would be possible to move this latter stopping place a few yards nearer North towards Kimberly Road. If you consider this proposal would be of any material advantage I will have the bus stop moved accordingly.

I am afraid I cannot make any further alterations.—I am, etc.

AQUATICS IN JAPANAmerican Swimmers
Impress

Manila, August 11.

American swimmers made a brilliant showing against Japanese mermen last night in the semi-final events of the national swimming championships, with Jack Medina and Albert van de Weghe of the United States emerging with flying colours in the events in which they participated.

In the second heat of the 1,500-metre free style semi-final, Medina, America's swimming sensation, splashed his way ahead of all competitors, negotiating the distance in 19 minutes, 50 seconds.

In the first heat of this event Negami of Japan came through with the time of 19 minutes, 16.8 seconds. Honda of Japan placed first in the third heat in the time of 19 minutes, 40.4 seconds.

In the 100-metre back stroke, Yoshida of Japan was first in the first heat, his time being 1 minute, 13 seconds. No American competed in this heat.

Van de Weghe of the United States took the second heat of the 100-metre back stroke event in the time of 1 minute, 8.8 seconds.

The Japanese had a virtual monopoly in the 200-metre free style swim, as only one American was entered in the event.

Sugimoto of Japan took the first heat in 2 minutes, 20.6 seconds. Sugita, also of Japan, placed first in the second heat, his time being 2 minutes, 19.4 seconds.

Arthur Highland of the United States took eighth place in the second heat of the 200-metre free style event.

The American swimming team, led by Coach Robert Kipnuth, participated in the national championship on the invitation of the Japanese Swimming Federation.

En route to Japan the American swimmers took part in exhibitions in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Its contents were discussed at our monthly meeting held on 13th inst. and my Committee considers moving one of the bus stops concerned, a few yards only, would be futile.—I am, etc.

SERIOUS CHARGE

Against Revenue
Officer

A charge of attempting to obtain or alternatively, of having attempted to extort, a bribe of $15 from an amah was preferred against a young Chinese Revenue Officer, Lai Tsai before Mr. Macfadyen at Central Magistracy yesterday.

Inspector John Murphy appeared for the prosecution and the accused was represented by Mr. Hin Shing Lo, instructed by Messrs. Lyson and Hall.

Outlining the facts of the case, Inspector Murphy said that on August 8, a lady named Tsai Mo Lan, her brother, Tsai Kin Fan, her amah Chan Ping and several other members of the family came down from Canton on the s.s. Tung On which arrived in Hong Kong at about 11 p.m. and tied up alongside the Tung On Wharf. The lady and her brother went to the Asia Hotel which was opposite the wharf, to spend the night, leaving their luggage which included four boxes, on the ship. They had also a considerable amount of furniture which they left on board. The amah, Chan Ping, and the other members of the family stayed on board the ship till the following morning.

At about 6 a.m. they proceeded to have the furniture and the luggage removed from the ship on to the wharf. The luggage was then transferred to a lorry which was waiting. At the time, the defendant was on duty on the wharf, being the only Revenue Officer present. He did not interfere with the luggage and made no attempt to search it until it had been placed on the lorry. He then spoke to the amah that he wanted to search the boxes. As the amah had not got the key she went to her mistress in the hotel to get it. Later she returned to the wharf and opened one of the boxes. Defendant, however, said that it was not necessary to search the luggage if she gave him $15 tea money. The amah told him she had no money, and then went back to the hotel and informed her mistress of the matter. Her mistress told her that it was not necessary to give any money, and the amah then returned and told the defendant to this effect. Defendant, it was alleged, then reduced the demand to $10. The amah again went to tell her mistress who again declined.

Disturbed My Luggage

Continuing, Inspector Murphy said that a witness would be called to give evidence to the effect that he heard defendant demanding the money. That witness was the lady's brother, Tsai Kin Fan who was with the amah at the time.

The amah was rather anxious to obtain the money and give it to the defendant as he was holding up the luggage. Defendant would not search the luggage nor would he let it go. One box was opened but he did not search it. The mistress later came on the scene and challenged defendant as to his right of demanding money and took him along to see Revenue Officer Dunlop. The defendant was subsequently charged at the police station with attempting to obtain a bribe. In reply to the charge, he said "I did not ask her for money. As she did not like me to search her luggage she falsely accused me. She said 'I am a relative of Tang Tai Tung of the Maritime Customs, Canton. You have disturbed my luggage. I want to take down your number. I arrested her and brought her to see the Inspector.'"

Evidence was then given by the witnesses concerned, after which the case was adjourned.

INDIANS AT LAW

The case in which Udh Singh, a registered money lender claimed $700 loaned on a promissory note to Ajit Singh Bros. was concluded before Mr. Justice Jacks yesterday when His Lordship entered judgment for the plaintiff with cost.

Mr. M. K. Lo was for the plaintiff and Mr. M. A. da Silva was for the defendants.

His Lordship described as "futile" the story of the defendant, which he said conveyed nothing beyond the impression that the defendant was holding something back. His Lordship expressed himself as not satisfied that the defence raised was a sufficient answer to the claim.

THE ARMY LOSES

One-Day Match With Australians

London, Aug. 15.

Don Bradman returned to the cricket field to-day, his appearance against the Army at Aldershot marking his first appearance since his injury in the fourth Test match at Leeds.

He was in fine fettle and hit up 74 in quick time, enabling the Australians to beat the Army by six wickets in a one-day match.

The Australians batted on after scoring the necessary runs to win, and finished up with 194 runs on the board for the loss of seven wickets.

The Army, batting first, could make no headway against the combined onslaught of O'Reilly and Bromley. The former took 3 for 17 and his colleague 3 for 21. The Army were all out for 110.—Reuter.

FESTIVALS

The festival of the cowherd and the spinning girl reminds one what a very prominent part in Chinese life is played by festivals. In this modern world of ours men and women have so many ways of amusing themselves that these ancient customs are tending to become out of date. And yet man is very conservative. The home papers are constantly telling us of pageants being held commemorating some historical event.

In days gone by the festival was the only means by which the people could get their amusement. Such were encouraged by the Church, and before the Church they were encouraged by pagan

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Berlin, Aug. 15.
Widespread regret is being felt at the news of the sudden death of the well-known and highly talented journalist, dramatist, and novelist, Paul Block, for many years a member of the staff of the "Frischer Tagblatt" in Paris. Death occurred at Bad Harzburg. Block retired from his journalistic activities on his 71st birthday last year.—

U. S. DROUGHT DAMAGE

Worst On Record

Washington, Aug. 16.
The United States drought damage is described by the Ministry of Agriculture as much worse than any previous year on record, and predicts that most grain prices will remain high until the late spring or early summer of 1935.

Livestock prices will probably remain higher longer. The report adds that food supplies generally are ample, but damage to feed, forage and pasture will cause sharp reductions in the supplies of meat and other livestock products in 1935.—

NEW SILVER RECORD

London, Aug. 15.
Silver reached its highest price registered since 1929, rising further by one eighth pence per ounce to 21/8 for cash and 21/11/16 for forward delivery. It should be noted that the 1929 price was gold value whereas today's is in sterling.—

religion. We have all heard of Baginallian festivals where men and women allowed themselves licenses which they would not have taken in ordinary times. The more modern form is the carnival, where religion, love and laughter are all mingled together.

A few years ago the modern Chinese leaders in their attempt to reform China even went as far as to abolish what they called foolish superstition; yet the customs of the people are very often more powerful than the wills of leaders. He must be a rare man who can alter the whole life of his countrymen. In China the changes are as much due to advancing times with their wealth of invention, as to the directing influence of any man.

In this case the desires of the people win again against the ideas of individuals. Hong Kong, like any other place where the British rule has always been tolerant of local custom, unless harmful to any section of the people. Not so in Canton, where very serious efforts have been made from time to time to abolish even harmless festivals. The last few years have shown conclusively that the people will have their amusements. And why not?

Festivals stimulate small commerce. The fruit vendor and street hawker, as well as small shops and a few good days amongst many evil ones. The news that this year after a cessation of twelve years the birthday of Confucius is to be held once more, and that his temple is to be re-opened is good news indeed. Modern China has yet to produce men of his type and a festival to the remembrance of one of the greatest of China's sons can but stimulate the younger generation to an interest in their own country.

If the cinema and the motor-car had abolished all these festivals the world would be a sadder place. However there are no indications of this yet and we cannot but admit that the Chinese, particularly those of the humbler classes, with their harmless and colourful festivals do their share in making Hong Kong a brighter place.

FUKIEN'S TURN NEXT?

A Grave Question

The question whether Fukien province will be the next portion of China to feel the steady hand of the Japanese empire builders is a question causing grave concern among Chinese leaders of this coastal province. The view of Chinese officials and business men here and in Amoy is, Japan is conducting a policy of political and economic penetration into Fukien that bodes evil for China.

Endless reports here causing much uneasiness among the Chinese are that Japan is considering taking over the parts of Amoy and Foochow as entry points into the sphere of influence she allegedly plans to attempt to establish within the province. Whether such reports are based upon fact no one here can say, but a very definite result is the Chinese business in the major cities along the provincial coast has been reduced to but a fraction of its former dimension.

A REAL DANGER

To these business men the danger of a Japanese occupation is very real, and they are afraid to keep much money invested in business. On the other hand Japanese merchants of whom there are many in the province are expanding their holdings apparently without fear of political or economic disturbances. Much business formerly in the hands of the Chinese is passing to Japanese, and many new arrivals from Formosa.

Where such reports originate is difficult to say. In the belief of the Chinese, Japan is either planning an occupation of Fukien or is deliberately causing such reports with a view to literally scaring the Chinese business men out of the province in favour of the Japanese. Whatever the purpose, the result is that Chinese business is being paralyzed in Fukien, and in Foochow in particular.

Japanese naval activity off the Fukien coast is constantly in evidence. Recently several Japanese naval craft came up the Min river almost to Foochow which is a good many miles from the sea, taking soundings all the way. The action caused much apprehension among the Chinese, and explanation from the Japanese navy was not forthcoming although the Chinese requested it.

ILLICIT TRADE

The provincial government is suffering from steadily decreased revenues as a result of the uncertainty. Smuggling is going on wholesale between here and Formosa and the Japanese are said to be playing an important role in this illicit trade. Many Chinese are also involved as the financial return on a safely landed cargo of Formosan sugar is large. Scores of other products said to be principally Japanese from Formosa are coming in through underground channels. The provincial government is the loser.

It is said in reputable circles that one-third of the products coming into Fukien are smuggled in and the provincial or national government of China is helpless to stop the practice.

Japan has long looked upon this province as an area in which she had special interests of vital importance to the security of Japan. The Chinese refuse to accept such a view. Just now the Japanese equally deny their government is planning any special activity as regards Fukien. Whatever the truth, disquieting reports are paralyzing Chinese trade to the advantage of Japan and the Japanese.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD

For Discus Throw

Brussels, Aug. 15.
Mlle. Wajowska, the Polish woman athlete, has broken a world's record for discus throwing twice within a week.

To-day in the Women's International Athletic meeting, she established new figures by a throw of 44.195 metres, which is approximately 14 feet 11 inches.

This surpasses her brilliant world's record throw of 143 feet 8 inches at the World Games held in London last week.—

HOW COPYRIGHT BEGAN

Sir Edward German's Story

Sir Edward German gave his version of the origin of the law of copyright when he opened the new offices of the Performing Rights Society, at Margaret-street, W. Sir Edward was addressing a distinguished company of composers and musicians, including Sir Landon Ronald.

Sir Edward said that the copyright law, "according to his information," dated back to a period even more remote than that of the reign of Queen Anne. The principle was first established in the ancient kingdom of Tara, Ireland.

In that ancient Kingdom of Tara, said Sir Edward, there were two monasteries, and they competed for the "tourist trade of the day." In one monastery lived an artistic monk who designed a very beautiful psalter, which so pleased the abbot that he had it hung over the altar. People went in very large numbers to see it.

The monks in the other monastery wondered at the decline in the number of their visitors, and sent to find out the reason for the popularity of their rivals. When the abbot of this second monastery was told of the psalter he ordered an exact copy.

The abbot of the first monastery then appealed to the King, whose judgment was "to every cow her calf," and ordered that this infringing copy should be destroyed.

Thus was first established the principle of copyright, which is now recognised throughout the world.

Referring to the Performing Rights Society, which protects the rights of composers in the public performance of their works, and collects fees for them, Sir Edward said that composers owed it a great debt of gratitude. The quality of the composition had nothing to do with the justice of the principle that a composer should be paid for the performance of his work.

STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER

(By "NO QUARTER")

Is Hong Kong musical? Time and again the question has arisen in the Press. Time and again it has been shelved for lack of authoritative opinion. Learning therefore of the arrival of Dr. Bortsch, celebrated composer and director of the Constantinople Symphony Orchestra, I hurried to interview him.

Dr. Bortsch is probably the most versatile and talented composer living to-day. He plays no fewer than forty-six different instruments, (including the difficult Mongolian claroon) and has composed one hundred and five musical works of every conceivable variety. He also sings in his bath.

I ALWAYS HAVE A CUP LAST THING AT NIGHT. THERE'S NOTHING LIKE OVALTINE

I was shown up to Dr. Bortsch's room. It was littered with instruments—in fact all the forty six which the doctor could play and several more that he couldn't, as I afterwards found to my cost.

"Sit down, sit down," he said, thoughtfully brushing a harp from the sofa. I tackled him at once.

"Do you think Hong Kong is musical?" I asked.

"Musical? Hm! That's a difficult question. Depends on what you call music. This jazz stuff! Intolerable. Partly yes and then again partly no. You can quote me as having said that."

WON'T YOU REALLY HAVE ANOTHER CUP MRS. SLUDGE? ITS SO GOOD FOR THE STOMACH

Dr. Bortsch then gave me a remarkable demonstration of his versatility. First of all he played me an exquisite little Aria by Blotto on the Siamese Noseflute, and followed it up by a tango for two Borneo Bush-fiddles, which was made of whale-skin and played with the big toe.

'NIGHT STARVATION. BERT THAT WAS 'ER TROUBLE'

After a short interval for liquid refreshment the doctor made some indescribably vulgar noises on the Trombone. I left hurriedly.

O'DUFFY DENOUNCES THE GOVERNMENT

Treatment Of Farmers In Ireland

Cork, Aug. 16. Thirty thousand people watched a very impressive funeral when the remains of Jeremiah Lynch, who was killed in the affray between farmers and the police last Monday, were conveyed to the last resting place.

Lynch was the only person to be killed when the police fired and baton-charged a mob of several thousands who adopted a threatening attitude, protesting against the sale of cattle belonging to a farmer who had not paid his land annuities. Seven were wounded and 25 injured. Mrs. O'Neill, sister of the Daily Deputy, dashed across the line of fire to the sale yard and brought a priest who administered the Last Sacrament to Lynch who was then dying.

Mr. Liam T. Cosgrave, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, was among the five thousand people who followed the coffin on foot six miles to the cemetery. At Lynch's native village, women knelt on the roadway and prayed as the procession passed. Blue shirt buglers sounded the "Last Post" over the grave.

General O'Duffy in a speech at the graveside denounced the Government's treatment of the farmers, which he declared had driven the farmers to desperation. He added, "Please God, the Government will have to answer at the bar of public opinion soon."

MR. EUGENE BLACK

To Resume Bank Governorship

Washington, Aug. 15. Mr. Eugene Black, who resigned the Governorship of the Federal Reserve Board, will resume the Governorship of the Federal Reserve Bank at Atlanta, Georgia. He will still remain as unofficial and unsalaried interpreter between the banks and administration and Congress people.

In a letter, Dr. Black, endorsing the new activities of President Roosevelt, declares, "You can do much good by representing the recovery programme to the reserve banks, commercial banks and other financial institutions."

In view of Sir Black's differences with the administration, this is interpreted in some quarters as indicating that Dr. Black had received an assurance that no radical monetary experiments are contemplated.

AUSTRIA'S ARMY

Request To Maintain Increase

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).) Paris, Aug. 16.

The Austrian Government has handed over to the French Foreign Office a note asking permission to retain for another year the increase of the army strength of 30,000 men granted to Austria last year. The reason given is that the events in Vienna on July 25 proved that the Austrian Government needs its undiminished strength so as to be able to maintain order.

It was also notified that the same request had been lodged, simultaneously, with all former allies.

FRENCH AND BRITISH APPROVAL

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).) Paris, Aug. 16.

According to press reports, the French and British Governments have agreed to grant the Austrian government's petition to be allowed to retain for another year the increase in army strength of 30,000 men granted her last year. It is understood that notes to that effect will soon be sent to Vienna.

The Italian Government, it is believed, will follow suit. Nothing is known here of an Austrian demand for increasing her army strength beyond that figure.

HINDENBURG'S FINAL TESTAMENT

French And British Press Comment

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 16, 7.50 p.m.)

Paris, August 16. The papers here publish long extracts from Hindenburg's "political testament," whose publication at the present time is assumed to be connected with the forthcoming plebiscite, which, so it is believed, will be considerably influenced by it in favour of Hitler. At the same time doubts are expressed as to the document's authenticity. The Echoes de Paris opines that the first part of the testament dating from 1919 is incontestably authentic; and the paper adds that taken as a whole the document constitutes splendid peace propaganda for Hitler.

Le Journal is likewise sceptical as to whether the second part of the testament was written by Hindenburg, but comes to the conclusion that the deceased Field Marshal recognised the value of Hitler's work.

Peit Journal says it is not yet possible to discuss the document's authenticity. Nevertheless according to the English papers the document undoubtedly shows the part played by Hindenburg in the same light as history will see it.

Le Martin on the other hand does not contend that the document was really written by Hindenburg who drew it up in the true spirit of a servant of the Prussian state—Transocean Kuo Min.

LONDON OPINION

London, August 16. The publication of Hindenburg's "political testament" is commented upon at length by the Press.

"The Times" special correspondent states that the publication of the document three days before the plebiscite is calculated to greatly influence those German electors who hitherto are undecided whether they should record affirmative votes on Sunday. The "Daily Telegraph" in a leading article states that the moment chosen for publication must be regarded as a masterpiece of propaganda.

The "Daily Express" remarks ironically that "the long-hidden document has now been suddenly found" and the "Daily Herald" is also sceptical concerning the "testament's" authenticity—Transocean Kuo Min.

LONDON-PARIS AIR LINE

Negotiations At A Standstill

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 16, 7.50 p.m.)

London, August 16. The Franco-British negotiations concerning the continuation to Marseilles of British air line from London and Paris, has come to a standstill, according to the "Times" which states that the conditions laid down by France are unacceptable to England. The importance for British airlines of being able to fly its airplanes direct from London to Marseilles is connected with the scheme for establishing a British air route from London to the Near East and Far East via Marseilles, Naples and Brindisi.

The Italian Government having already authorised British airplanes to fly from Naples to Brindisi, the only missing overland link on the route is Marseilles. Until the Franco-British negotiations on this subject have been successfully concluded, air passengers from London to the East must travel from Paris to Brindisi by rail—Transocean Kuo Min.

SPAIN'S CATHOLIC PARTY

No Confidence In The Government

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).) Madrid, Aug. 16.

That the days of the Spanish cabinet appear to be numbered is evidenced by the announcement to the effect that Spain's Catholic party known as "Popular Action" hitherto one of the chief supporters of the present government, has resolved to withdraw its support. The Catholic party is disappointed at the Government's alleged weakened attitude in the Basque and Catalan issue and its failure to curb the numerous armed smash and grab raids. The "Popular Action" party declares that in the circumstances it will no longer place confidence in the Government upon Parliament reassembling on October 1. If need be, the "Popular Action" party is prepared to form a new government—Transocean Kuo Min.

CANADIAN HAY

For Relief In Drought Areas

Washington, Aug. 15. President Roosevelt is considering a plan for the purchase of hay in Canada to feed the cattle in the drought area.

If the scheme is carried through, Government officials anticipate that there will be possibly a fifty per cent. reduction in the hay tariff scale, or even duty free importation.

CONTROL FROM THE AIR

Solving London's Traffic Problems

London, August 15. The first trial flight over London of the new Scotland Yard Autogiro took place today to test the value of observations which can be made from such a machine for traffic control and other Police work.

Assistant Commissioner Tripp who is in charge of the traffic section of Scotland Yard was in the Autogiro and after the flight he expressed the opinion that there were great possibilities for traffic regulation from air, the value of which had been already proved in connection with isolated problems such as Derby Day congestion. Police experiments will continue for some weeks—British Wireless.

COLONY'S 220 SWIMMING RECORD LOWERED AT INTERPORT TRIALS

HOME CRICKET NOTES

A Tour Round The Fields

(Special Air Mail Service)

Following on 15 runs behind Lancashire in the match at Liverpool, Leicestershire were put out a second time for 262. Left to get 48 to win, Lancashire hit off the runs for the loss of one wicket.

Berry scored 50 out of 94 in ninety minutes but following his dismissal there was no real resistance until Geary and Wigginton came together. Wigginton stayed an hour and 25 minutes for 15, and Geary, defied the attack for 75 minutes.

"Take Him Off!" Cry From Crowd

Neither the Taunton crowd nor the Somerset batsmen seemed to relish the bowling of Smith, the Middlesex speed specialist. Smith sent down several "bumpers," and while the spectators shouted "Play cricket!" and "Take him off," J. Lee showed just how he felt by walking more than half way down the pitch to pat the turf with his bat!

A sound defensive innings by F. Lee, who scored his third century of the season, helped Somerset to avoid defeat. The western county, who resumed their second innings 314 behind and with all their wickets in hand, scored 228 for the loss of five batsmen before the close.

Battling right through the innings, Lee's not-out 130 included twelve 4's mainly the result of clever on-side play.

Verity Upsets Notts

Only dogged batting by Harris and Gunn saved Notts from defeat in the match with Yorkshire at Trent Bridge.

Verity caused such a batting breakdown first thing—he took the last four wickets for 30—that Notts had to follow-on 174 behind. In their second venture the home county lost four wickets for 87, but Harris and Gunn put on 103 in two hours for the fifth stand.

So slow at first that he took seventy-five minutes over 16, Harris got to 50 in a further hour, and played three hours for his 79. He made his runs out of 189 and hit two 6's and nine 4's. Gunn remained in two hours and a quarter, and his dogged defence helped to make the same safe.

Essex Beat Clock And Glamorgan

There was a thrilling finish to the Clacton Festival Essex beating Glamorgan by two wickets, with ten minutes to spare. With the Welsh county adding five to their overnight score of 353 for eight, Essex were set to get 307 for victory in five hours—a task they succeeded in doing, though 23 were needed in the last hour.

Scoring 108—his highest innings of the season—Pope stayed 4 hours 20 minutes, until all but 4 of the runs needed for victory were obtained. Seventh out at 303, he hit ten 4's in a splendid display of neat and correct strokes all round the wicket.

Wilcox, the Essex captain, helped to add 87 in eighty-five minutes for the second stand, and O'Connor obtained nine boundaries during the following hour, which saw 87 put on.

Sussex Captain Hints Out Against Warwick

Set to get 289 to beat Warwickshire in three and a quarter hours at Hove, Sussex were content to play out time and when stumps were drawn they were still 108 behind, with seven wickets in hand.

The final stages were made interesting, however, by Alan Melville, the Sussex captain, completing 101 out of 149 in two hours ten minutes. Making his last 50 runs in half an hour, Melville hit a dozen boundaries.

Early in the day Warwickshire increased their total from 128 to 270 while losing six more wickets. Skittall fell to a remarkable one-hand catch at deep mid-on, Parks holding a terrific drive; but Wyatt, Lollery and Buckingham all batted well against the bowling by Tate and J. Cornford.

Easy For Gloucester

Gloucestershire had no difficulty in beating Worcestershire at Dudley by an innings and 34 runs. With a lead of 299, D.A.C. Page wisely declared at the overnight total of 625 for six wickets, and although Gibbons, Howarth and Lyttelton all hit pluckily, Worcestershire were soon in trouble.

Half the side were out for 92 but there came a sound stand of 121 between Lyttelton and Howarth. Lyttelton had seven 4's in his 53—he punished Goddard for three boundaries off successive deliveries—and Howarth in making 70 put together his highest score for the county during a stay of eighty minutes.

Derbyshire Win By Ten Wickets

Despite a dashing innings by Arnold, Hampshire lost to Derbyshire by ten wickets at Derby.

Though Hampshire had lost two wickets overnight when reducing their arrears to 168, Arnold hit out right-heartily. Batting two hours or 85, he had a 6 and thirteen 1's among his scoring strokes. He finished Mitchell for 16 in one over—a 6 and two 4's flowed from bat—and was also severe on Johnson.

LAWRENCE'S BRILLIANT "TREBLE"

T. Paget And E. B. Roza In Thrilling Sprint

A. A. ROZA'S CHALLENGE

W. Lawrence, swimming a very well judged race, yesterday evening broke the existing Colony's 220 Yards Free Style record by over two seconds. He recorded a brilliant "treble" in the Interport Swimming Trials by taking first places in the 100 Yards, the 220 Yards and the 440 Yards.

Lawrence returned the excellent time of 2 mins. 30 secs., which is just 2-2/5 seconds better than J. R. Johnstone's previous record made in 1929.

Lionel Roza Pereira again came second and although he hung on feebly he was unable to make up on Lawrence whose bursts of lead in the sixth and seventh lengths gave him the race.

The pace was very fast and Lawrence's first 100 yards was covered in 33 seconds.

T. Paget further enhanced his chances for the sprint distances when he beat H. L. Ozorio by 1-2/5 seconds in the 75 Yards sprint.

Owing to the Shanghai pool being 60 Yards long, the original distance of 50 Yards was changed to 75 yards in order to give the Colony's swimmers a try-put in the longer distance.

The start of the 220 Yards saw Lawrence take a slight lead from A. A. Roza who kept well up on the leader. Lionel Roza Pereira was not far behind. In the subsequent length Pereira crept up into second place but was unable to make up for the deficit between him and Lawrence.

The sixth and seventh lengths saw Lawrence put his last ounce into the finish and he touched the tape a good five yards to the good of Roza Pereira.

The result of the race was:—
1—W. Lawrence—2 mins. 30 secs. (Colony Record).
2—Lionel Roza Pereira—2 mins. 35.1/5 secs.
3—A. A. Roza—2 mins. 40.4/5 secs.

The Sprint
Mr. Cook announced that as the pool in Shanghai was 60 Yards long, the sprint distance had been increased to 75 yards.

T. Paget, E. B. Roza, Lionel Roza Pereira and H. L. Ozorio faced the starter and although Paget was one of the last to leave the side of the pool, he was not far behind E. B. Roza and H. L. Ozorio at the turn, Roza Pereira being last.

E. B. Roza led for one and a quarter lengths and then Paget got into the lead and clocked 26.1/5 seconds for his first 50 yards, finishing well ahead of the rest in 42.2/5 seconds.

H. L. Ozorio sprinted well to take second place from E. B. Roza by a touch, while Roza Pereira struggled into fourth place some distance behind.

It was a very good race and the result was never in doubt after Paget had shot into the lead.
The result of the race was:—
1—T. Paget—42.2/5 secs.
2—H. L. Ozorio—43.4/5 secs.
3—E. B. Roza—44 secs.
4—Lionel Roza Pereira.

LAW 9

Goal-keeper-Handling
The goal-keeper may within his own penalty area use his hands, but shall not carry the ball.

Official Decisions

Carrying by the goal-keeper is taking more than four steps while holding the ball, or bouncing it on the hand.

Referees and Players are required to comply with the regulation as to goal-keepers wearing distinctive colours. (Council, December, 1919.)

Instruction To Referees

The goal-keeper must not "walk about" bouncing the ball on the hand. After the fourth step he must be penalised.

If the goal-keeper handles the ball outside his own penalty area, he is committing a breach of Law 8. For "carrying" the ball the penalty is a free kick and not a penalty kick.

Charging The Goal-keeper

The goal-keeper shall not be charged except when he is holding the ball or obstructing an opponent, or when he has passed outside the goal-area.

Instruction To Referees

If the goal-keeper obstructs an opponent he may be charged even when in his goal-area. See that the goal-keeper is not unfairly charged; as he has so little chance of protecting himself when his attention is engaged with a coming shot.

Special notice should be taken of the fact that a goal-keeper may be charged when he is outside the goal-area.

Instruction To Players

The goal-keeper should bear in mind that directly he leaves his goal area he liable to be charged by an opponent.

So long as a goal-keeper does not hold the ball or obstruct an opponent, he is protected under

THE CYCLING CLUB

More Record Attempts

Another splendid performance was put up by Mr. E. Tweedy on Wednesday evening when he succeeded in reducing his week-old figures for 25 miles by 74 mins. to 1 hour, 21 mins. 45 secs.

The fourth of the weekly series of unspaced time trials arranged by the Hong Kong Cycling Club, saw Tweedy only as a starter. He was timed by the official timekeeper, Mr. E. Munns, and commenced his attempt at 8.07 p.m., with the object of finishing before dusk thereby saving a few minutes on the latter miles. The more favourable conditions resulting from the early start proved a considerable asset, but the rider also showed much improvement in both speed and judgment to record a time which averages 18.34 m.p.h. This time is now only 14 mins. 41 secs. slower than the Shanghai record for the distance.

H.A.G. Keates, whose performance of the previous week of shattering the 10 miles figure by a margin of 64 mins. and straightway recording an average speed of over 19 m.p.h. for 15 miles, failed to start on his scheduled attempts on the 5 and 15 miles times. His non-appearance was unfortunately due to a severe outbreak of boils which although curbing his activities in the near future, should not prevent his "facing the timekeeper" in two or three weeks' time.

the Laws when within his goal area. Get rid of the ball at once is naturally the best advice that can be given him.

Goal-keeper: May Be Charged

The goal-keeper may be charged during the game, but notice of such change must first be given to the Referee.

Official Decisions

If a goal-keeper has been charged without the Referee being notified—and the new goal-keeper handles the ball within the penalty area, a penalty kick must be awarded. (International Board, June 17, 1901.)

K. F. C. MEETING

To Be Held Next Friday

The Kowloon Football Club will be holding its Twentieth Annual General Meeting on Friday next, August 24, at 6 p.m. at their Club pavilion in Chatham Road.

The Annual Report just issued states in part:—

It is gratifying to announce that there shows a small gain of $1.23 on this year's working, and this result is considered to be very satisfactory as compared with a loss of $1,081.53 last year. The various expenditures this year are, in most cases, less than last year, with the exception of some increases under entertainment, football gear and expenses, presentation and wages, etc. The ground has been fenced with galvanized iron sheets at a cost of $650.00. While the financial and general position shows improvement, it is the wish of your Committee to further improve results during the coming year.

Membership: The Membership of the Club stands at 224; during the year 45 new members were elected, 35 resigned, 4 died, and 16 have been struck off to bring our books up to date or due to departure from the Colony.

Your Committee record with deep regret the deaths of Messrs. J. Johnstone, A. M. Simpson, R. F. Mitchell, and L. Hutchings.

Football: The ground has been well looked after during the year and is in very good condition for the coming season. Both teams were beaten in the 1st round of the Shield ties by the S.W.B. The 1st eleven by two goals to one after extra time and the 2nd eleven by one goal to nil. In the League fixtures the 1st eleven did better than the previous year. The 2nd eleven finished at the bottom of the 2nd League which was uncompleted.

Instructions To Referees

Note who commences a game as goal-keeper and allow no one else to act as goal-keeper, or to claim his privileges, until you have been notified of the change of goal-keeper.

Instruction To Players

If the goal-keeper is changed during the game the Referee must at once be notified.

NEWS FROM CHINA

UNNECESSARY
EXPENSEAt Funerals And Weddings

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Aug. 16.

Bad and antiquated Chinese customs should be uprooted in the interest of social welfare. This is the substance of a radio address
last night by Mr. Cheung Yuen
Fung, Municipal Commissioner of Social Affairs.

"Funeral and wedding ceremonies must be simplified in order to cut down unnecessary expenses," Mr. Cheung continued. "People are spending too much money on funeral rites or wedding ceremonies.
On my recent visit to places
in Eastern Kwangtung, I found that the death of a person means also considerable loss of his money.
When a person dies, lots of friends and relatives come to offer their condolences. In due course bills are presented to the widow or executor for fees. These bills have to be settled, otherwise this would mean a loss of 'face' and friendship. Regardless of the financial standing of the bereaved family,
large sums of money have to be spent."

The same is true with regard to marriage ceremonies. Mr. Cheung said. People pawn their valuables or borrow money in order to put up an elaborate show. Big banquets are given out of proportion to the wealth of the bridegroom.

Mr. Cheung then scathed fashionable ladies for "dolling up" too much as this entails purchase of foreign materials for clothes, powder, and rouge. Love of art is human nature, he said, but artificial beauty should be shunned.
He pointed out that the women in Shanghai spent $1,500,000 a year
on cosmetics and "chic" clothes
and said that with this big sum,
much can be done for charity. Love of art, he added, should be in the admiration of fine health, cleanliness, and simplicity.

COMMUNISTS
IN FUKIENFight For Strategic Points

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton Aug. 16.

While the real state of affairs
in Foochow is not fully known owing to press censorship, Fukienese merchants here received telegrams yesterday afternoon stating that the Nanking troops were fighting the Communists on Tuesday night at Yen Ping and Ku Tien, which are about 80 miles and 80 miles respectively North-west of Foochow.

These two towns are the strategic gateways to Foochow, and in the past the fall of these points meant the inevitable occupation of Foochow. But the heavy concentration of troops in the provincial capital may prevent it from being taken by the Communists.

More divisions are being sent from Chekiang and Kiangsu to Fu-kien by land and water. Treaty ports as Foochow and Amoy may remain in the hands of the government troops owing to the presence of Chinese and foreign warships, although the danger always remains, it is believed here.

Fukienese merchants in Canton are puzzled how the Reds can suddenly reach the outskirts of Foochow, when they are reported to have been repulsed. The Communists are described by Shanghai and Nanking papers as a ragged force with a scanty supply of ammunition. Nevertheless, they fight so near to Foochow that gunfire is heard in the city.

It is learned that the Reds are much refreshed after having plenty to eat and having disarm-ed the government troops at Tai Tien and Yau Kai in Central Fu-kien. The rice shops in these places sold out the cereals "on credit" while the peace preservation corps either joined the Reds or were disbanded by them.
Having secured foodstuffs and ammunition, the Communists are staging another attack on the government forces.

NEW JAPANESE
AERODROMENear Nankai Race
Course

Tientsin, Aug. 16.

Notwithstanding the repeated
protests lodged by the Tientsin
Municipal Government, the Japanese are still going on with the construction of the aerodrome
at Pailtal, near the Nankai Race Course. According to investigations conducted by the Bureau of Public Safety, the Japanese have completed the levelling of 480
mow of land leased from the Kwang Jen Shan Tang (local philanthropic organization). Beginning from the 8th, the number of labourers has been increased to 700.

Mr. Wang Tao, Mayor of Tientsin, has been notified by Mr.
Tanaka, Japanese Vice-Council
at Tientsin, that another Japanese Vice-Consul will be sent from Peking by the Japanese Legation to exchange views with the Chinese authorities for the settlement of the dispute.

"RED" OFFICER
REFORMSAnd Given Official Position

Nanking, Aug. 16.

The surrender of Kung Ho-chung, the so-called Commander of the 8th "Red" Army Corps in western Fukien, has been accepted
by General Chiang Kai-shek,
President of the Military Affairs Commission.

Kung was recently brought to Nanchang by soldiers of the 36th
Army under General Chou Hunyuan, and personally questioned by General Chiang. As he showed himself to be truly repentant,
General Chiang has taken a lenient attitude towards the bandit
leader and appointed him
Counsellor to the Nanchang Provisional Headquarters.

Grateful for the clemency of the Central authorities, Kung Ho-chung is stated to have signified
his readiness to assist the Government troops in pacifying the rebellious "Red" outlaws in western Kiangsi.

UNFORTUNATE PRISONERS

An attempt is being made to clear up the appears of prisoners waiting for trial. In a number of places there are men who have been waiting in prison for a long time. The keeper of goal does not know why they are there, neither do the magistrates. They were put into this situation by military organisations which in most cases have since been dispersed. They themselves when asked,
do not know what they are there for. They have an identification card and that is all. As their plight is pitiable it is all the more regrettable that it is settling such cases, it is intended to release them from all those prisons where they may be held.

REDS REPULSED

Heavy Casualties
Reported

Foochow, Aug. 16.

The remnant "Reds" under the notorious Lo Ping-hui, after being defeated by the 87th Division
under Lieut-General Wang Chingchia at Shuihou, midway between Foochow and Yenping along the Min River, have retreated eastwards to Tahn, about 30 miles
north-west of Foochow.

Assisted by three Government
planes which dropped heavy bombs on the "Reds", the 87th Division under the personal command of Lieut-General Wang launched a furious assault on the marauders on Wednesday morning.
The latter, suffering heavy casualties, were forced to escape in various directions with the Government troops in hot pursuit.

To strengthen the defence of Foochow city, the Brigade under Major-General Shen Fa-tsao attached to the 87th Division, historically stationed at Chianshow, south-eastern Fukien, has been summoned here.

The menace to the provincial capital having been removed,
General Chiang Ting-wen, Commander-in-Chief of the Eastern Route Bandit-suppression Forces
(for the provinces of Kiangsi, Kwangtung, Fukien, Hunan and
south-eastern Fukien, on Wednesday afternoon.

TANK CAUSES MISUNDER-STANDING

A bus company has a station near Canton at Lokong. The shareholders were divided into two parties each of which wished to install its own manager. One party obtained the services of a military tank which drove up to the bus station on the morning of the 13th. When it arrived a panic was caused amongst the local villagers, who immediately declared martial law. After a crowd of about three hundred had collected round the station this misunderstanding was cleared up. The acting manager handed over to the party protected by the tank.
Unfortunately for them a report of the matter had in the meantime got through to the commander-in-chief who has instructed General To Yik Han to find out how his newly imported tanks can be used for settling private arguments. —Nam Wah Yat Po.

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

Selling More Prevalent

Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)

Berlin, Aug. 15.

Selling was more prevalent than buying on Wednesday's sharemarket, so that prices were mostly declining. The general apathy was attributed to the nearness of the German plebiscite, the German foreign trade returns showing a decline, and the Dutch clearing-house action. Fixed interest securities were in fair demand, so that the prices were better maintained than on the sharemarket. The prominent feature of both markets was the sharp decline of all foreign investments.

JAPAN AND AUSTRALIA WOOLEN TRADE

Tokyo, Aug. 8.

Japan may reply to the present cotton tariff increase by the Australian Government by restricting wool imports from that country.

The new Australian cotton duties are almost prohibitive and it is apprehended here that exports from Japan will be reduced to vanishing point. The share of the Australian cotton business which Japan obtained in the first half of the year represented only 2.3 per cent. of her export total, and as far as Japan's export trade is concerned the effect will not be severe.

Japanese traders are, however, exasperated by Australia's ousting Japanese goods in disregard of the fact that Japan is one of the largest buyers of wool.

Collating the views of wool weavers, the Japanese press says that these weavers are ready to restrict their imports by 50 per cent. if approached by cotton traders with a request for such retaliatory action.

Last year Japan imported 650,000 bales, and this year the total is expected to be 700,000 bales. A restriction of 30 to 40 per cent. will cause no serious inconvenience to the weaving industry in Japan, it is added.

Japanese traders with Australian connections discussed their attitude at the headquarters of the Kobe Foreign Trade Association yesterday afternoon.

Java Conference

Little progress has been made in the negotiations between the Java-China-Japan Lijn and Japanese members of the Java Freight Conference in regard to the adoption of a pool system, says the "Japan Chronicle." The Java-China-Japan Lijn, in accordance with the wishes of the Netherlands Indies Government, is still insisting on the transfer of the whole matter to the present Netherlands Indies-Japanese trade negotiations in Batavia. It is understood that the Netherlands Indies side has recently proposed to Mr. Nagasaki, the Japanese delegate, the inclusion of the shipping problem on the agenda. Japan, however, will not agree to transfer the pool issue to the Java parleys. They are convinced of the reasonableness of their contention to settle the question within the freight conference and are afraid that any concession will be made a precedent in all future negotiations with foreign shipping companies.
